GRAND MARSHALL

JOHN R. BRODERICK

John R. Broderick has served as the eighth president of Old Dominion University since 2008.

As president, he guides the University's six colleges, more than 10 economic development and research centers, and numerous partnerships with government, military and business organizations and agencies. He oversees the operating budget and more than 3,000 faculty and staff members.

President Broderick oversaw the renewal of football at Old Dominion in 2009, with the Monarchs posting the most successful record of any start-up team in FCS history. He served on the NCAA board of directors, as chair of the President's Football Championship Series advisory committee and currently serves on the NCAA Division I Committee on Institutional Performance. In 2013, the University joined Conference USA and its football program was reclassified to the Football Bowl Subdivision. President Broderick currently serves as the vice chair of the Conference USA board.

Additionally, President Broderick, along with First Lady Kate Broderick and their family, established the University's Broderick-Evon Award for Community Engagement and Service to honor students who make the Old Dominion community a better place. First Lady Kate Broderick was also instrumental in establishing the Women in Philanthropy program, which in addition to fundraising, provides mentoring to ODU students from women leaders in our region.

Throughout his career, President Broderick has been actively engaged in numerous community and professional organizations. He currently is a board member of the Hampton Roads Partnership, Urban League and MacArthur Foundation, and served for many years as a youth soccer league coach in Chesapeake.

Prior to joining Old Dominion University, President Broderick was a faculty member in the University of Pittsburgh system and an administrator at St. Bonaventure University. He received a bachelor's degree from Northeastern University and a graduate degree from St. Bonaventure. He is a native of Bristol, Conn.
